Records Request

Dear School Official,

We recently received an application to Laurel School for the student named above and we need your help to complete the admission folder. It is requested that an official copy of the following be released to Laurel School as soon as possible:

- a transcript of current and past grades and credit
- results of all standardized testing

We appreciate your time and thoughtfulness in providing this information so that we can make a well-informed decision on behalf of this student. If you have questions about any aspect of our application process, please call the Admissions Office at 216.464.0946.
